

These are the details for the Pavilion Café toilet in Highgate Wood for example. It needs to be filled in. Go on!

Toilet

See in full-screen map →

Who can access? Public

Data
(technical info for this toilet)
Credibility:	★★★☆☆ (2 out of 5)
Geohash	gcpvkw6c3gc5
Formats	JSON
Sources	[1]
Contributors	Open Street Map

Edit this toilet

One big question relates to the public use of private toilets. Some pubs, cafes and restaurants allow public use on request. We should be asking the pubs and cafes of Highgate to let us in.

Here's one such pub in the west end:

Ye Olde Cock Tavern

See in full-screen map →

Who can access?	Public use permitted

Facilities	female and male

Accessible facilities	unisex

Baby Changing?	No

Automatic?	No

Radar key?	No

Notes

MONDAY TO FRIDAY: 07.00 - 23.00;
SATURDAY: 12.00 - 18.00; SUNDAY: Closed. Part of City of London Community Toilet Scheme.

Wouldn't it be nice if Highgate's equivalents let in the elderly or mothers with young children who have been caught short?